

Tony Stewart • Architect

BSc. Arch, BA (Hons), M.Arch ARB

Tony is a well-motivated and hardworking individual who takes satisfaction in progressing a project from the initial design stages through to completion. He has had good project experience in acute sector projects.

Tony joined the Practice in 2012.

t: 01865 305149

e: tonystewart@gbsarchitects.co.uk

Summary of Acute NHS experience

- New Skin Centre, Mount Vernon Hospital (currently stage E). £4m.
- Emergency Multidisciplinary Unit, Witney Hospital. Renovation and redecoration of the Community Hospital to form the new EMU Department.
- Windrush Ward, Fulbrook Centre, Churchill Hospital. Renovation of the ward into a Community Hospital. £1.2m.
- EAU. John Radcliffe Hospital, Major extension in five phases. £1.5m.
- Major extension and reconfiguration of Emergency Assessment Unit, JR Hospital, Oxford (5 phases) £1.8m.
- New ED streaming modular building, JR Hospital, Oxford (MTX) - £500k.
- VIE upgrade (via MTC) 2019, John Radcliffe Hospital. £1m